DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 19-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102 (e) as being anticipated by Greenhalgh (U.S. 6,391,037).

Greenhalgh shows in figures 5-7, an aneurysm treatment device having the limitations of claim 19, including: a sac (42) having a relaxed state (at best seen in fig. 5) which is capable of passing through an artery and an aneurysm neck (20); and where the sac configures to receive an introduction of material so as to create an increasing internal pressure that increases a radial dimension of the sac (see col. 3, lines 1-48). Furthermore, it is noted that the aneurysm device of Greenhalgh can use in the treatment of aneurysms. This function is the same as the applicant's device.

Regarding claims 20-21, where the sac (42) is formed by the polymer material (labeled in col. 3, lines 42-50); and where the sac is releasably connected to an elongate delivery member (26).

Regarding claims 22-23, where the sac (42) is perforated and has an expanded radial dimension to bridge a neck (30) of an aneurysm (20).

Response to Amendment

2. Applicant's arguments filed 11/10/2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant is asked to please refer to the modified prior art rejection above where examiner addresses applicant's concerns regarding prior art rejection.

Conclusion

3. This is a RCE of applicant's earlier Application No. 09/918,991. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the earlier application and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the earlier application. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action in this case. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no, however, event will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
